

GGRA Restaurant Member Benefits

If you are a restaurant owner or stakeholder, membership benefits for your restaurant (or restaurant group) include, but are not limited to:

- The GGRA is a tireless advocate on behalf of restaurants. We make sure that restaurants' unique perspectives are being considered relative to proposed regulations. Learn more about our advocacy work here.
- A free employee manual updated annually specifically for restaurants ($3,000-$10,000 cost to have prepared by a lawyer). Active members can download here using their member login.
- Discounts on education and training programs including our Food Safety training program in partnership with the State Food Safety.
- Individual casework, if you are having issues with the city/permitting/really anything, we can help you resolve it — Building, Planning, Health Department or more, and utilities like Recology.
- Representation at City Hall and with local governments, and through our GGRA Political Action Committee (PAC). Representation at a State and Federal level as well.
- GGRA members can sign up their employees for HCSO options via our partners NFP's Crossover OrderUpHealth or GoHealth Urgent Care.
- Regular updates on news and events that help you stay in compliance.
- No cost participation in both Fall and Spring SF Restaurant Week.
- Discounted registration to GGRA's Industry Conference.
- Invitations to educational programming and training year-round.
- The opportunity to market your restaurant's dishes on our consumer-facing social media channels including Eat Drink SF Instagram, which has more than 94,000 followers, as well as other social and traditional media promotion.
